Helpful Facts:

The WAHA Board meets at least 9 times a year to work on various functions such as budget and finance, nominations, various club programs such as breed promotion through Midwest Horse Fair, FREE clinics, Youth Program, and many other topics. Interested in learning more about the duties and responsibilities of officers and directors? Contact WAHA President Jessica Cole at (262) 672-9742 or by email jcts@jvl.net or tdjcts@msn.com

Did you know that 4 times a year WAHA sends 6 delegates from the club to represent WAHA at the Region 10 meeting? WAHA also sends these delegates to the Arabian Horse Association National Convention each year? These delegates deal with many different topics. To find out more what your delegates do contact any of the WAHA delegates.

Did you know that WAHA each year has a group of dedicated Wisconsinites that get up in the wee hours of Thanksgiving Day to truck their Arabian horses to Chicago for the BIG televised Thanksgiving Day parade which is viewed live on television to millions of homes? A typical Thanksgiving morning begins for most of these people around 3AM. Yup, that's right 3AM. What better way to spend your Thanksgiving Day, getting up before 3AM, loading horses by 5AM, driving to Chicago, unloading the horses in the Windy City with temperatures that seem to stay under 20 degrees. To learn more about participating in the Thanksgiving Day Parade contact Julia Goder-Larson at (608) 676-5224 or foxhlw@aol.com

Each year the Wisconsin Arabian Horse Association continues to promote the Arabian breed through various programs. In addition, Wisconsin Arabian Horse Association would like to give thanks for those that come out and help support our mission through showing and becoming members of the Wisconsin Arabian Horse Association.
